Statewide restrictions continue to lessen, however, several requirements will remain in place. Mask wearing is recommended for everyone and required for those who are not fully vaccinated. Social distancing will be strictly enforced throughout the food and ride areas and every attendee entering the ride area will go through a brief health screening, including questions on any COVID-19 symptoms, close contacts or recent positive COVID-19 test results.

Hand washing stations and hand sanitizing supplies will be available throughout the grounds. Rides and games will be thoroughly deep cleaned and sanitized regularly, with spot cleaning taking place throughout the day. Ground markings, lines and cones will mark required social distancing for all lines for food, rides and games. All ride seating will be socially distanced as well (outside of family groups). Signage will be placed throughout the area reminding guests of all requirements.

Entrance and parking is FREE and an unlimited all day contactless ride band is available for $20/person.
