"It is thanks to organizations like the Palisades Center and the Rockland County Career Center that Rockland's most recent unemployment rate is tied for the lowest in the region at 3.1%," said County Executive Ed Day. "Together we are strengthening our economy by creating an atmosphere where businesses thrive, and jobs are created. I pledge to continue to work with these organizations and others to create more opportunities for our residents to grow and prosper in this County we all love."

“As the Director of the Rockland County Career Center, we are fully committed in bringing together quality employers, as well as, qualified candidates at a central location to address the ongoing employment gap in our community and the region,” said Director of Rockland County Career Center, Egbert Shillingford.
